

Atlific Adds Four New Western Canadian Hotels to Management Portfolio

May 13, 2011

Atlific Hotels has added four brand-new Western Canadian resorts and hotels to its management portfolio.

Joining Atlific's roster is Copper Point Resort, in Invermere, B.C., and Fairfield Inn & Suites Winnipeg, both opening this month; Element by Westin Vancouver Metrotown, scheduled to open in 2012, in Burnaby B.C.; and Dakota Dunes, slated for early 2013, in Whitecap, Sask.

Copper Points Resort features 203 guestrooms and suites, and offers meeting space for 200 people, with spectacular views.

Fairfield Inn & Suites Winnipeg will feature 126 guestrooms and suites, and over 800 sq. ft. of flexible meeting space.

Element by Westin extended-stay hotel will house 169 guestrooms and suites, and 5,500 sq. ft. of flexible meeting areas.

With 11,000 sq. ft. of flexible meeting space, the 161-room Dakota Dunes will connect to the Dakota Dunes Casino.
